THE CHALLENGE.

Cahoon county will roll up a larger majority for Greeley and Brown, and the Democratic and Conservative State ticket in the election in November next than any County in the State in proportion to voting strength as determined in the last gubernatorial election, and hereby challenges any and every County in the State to enter the contest.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

of Cahoon county.

Take Notice.

There is no Federal law known to us, or that a minute investigation has enabled us to discover, requiring separate tickets for Congressmen, or separate boxes at the election. The Federal Laws require the voting to be by ballot either printed or written, or partly printed or written, on white paper, but do not require separate tickets for Congressmen, or separate boxes. The State Law regulates the number of ballots and boxes, and the State Law requires one ballot and one box.

Do not forget. Let every man in Cahoon try and vote at least one colored man on the day of election.

Let us shout Herndon and victory next Wednesday morning, when we hear the news of the election.

Your vote for Greeley & Brown next Tuesday will mean an indignant protest against Grant's present military interference in the election of this State.

We issue the Republican to-day (although but a half sheet) as our regular weekly, in order that the law may be fulfilled in the matter of legal advertisements. It is true that we have given the weekly Republican both to our patrons, who have invested in the works which lay along the line of the Selma, Rome and Dalton Railroad, and around Rome in other directions. It has given us an iron fever & when we publish it next Saturday, we know our people will all have by Monday the iron fever too. The profits of the Etowah Furnace between here and Rome has been since the 6th of last April one hundred and thirty-three per cent. On an investment of seventy-five thousand dollars the Company has netted since last April sixty-four thousand dollars.—Whoever heard of the like? Put in your thousand dollars and you get your dividends yearly, amounting to thirteen hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-three cents. This beats Copper Gold, the Arizona Diamond mines, anything. We begin to want Mr. Jones to hurry up the organization of the Company that is to go to work above here making fortunes for us all. We understand from a reliable source that Messrs. Noble of Rome are ready to put in a considerable amount to the enterprise. Mr. Jones himself will raise from other sources than here, twenty-five thousand dollars. An investment that such old men as the Nobles are not afraid of, should not be the one to righen our people. The statements of the Rome paper are to be relied upon as correct. That shows the most gigantic profits. Will not our people take hold at once? We think they will. Let us have a public meeting Monday in the Court House at 2 o'clock and talk the matter over.

Confederate soldiers in Calhoun will show Mr. Miller Lewis how they can testify an appreciation for a brave man next Tuesday.

John A. Bingham—David P. Lewis.

Just after the war, an innocent woman was arrested, confined in a dungeon, dragged before a military commission, in defiance of her constitutional right to be tried by a jury of her peers, and sentenced to death. In spite of every effort made to have her punishment commuted to imprisonment in spite of the protests of good men and the heart rending appeals of her young daughter, this innocent woman was hanged. Several men in prominent places participated in this infamous act of judicial murder, for such it is now known to be. Two of them, headed by the author of conscience, now fill suicidal graves. Another, and the most active of all, had the audacity to come down to Montgomery to teach honest people how to discharge their duty. Also that the time should ever come when any portion of the people of Alabama, black or white, could be deemed base enough to hearken to the teachings of such a man!

But it is fitting that John A. Bingham, of Ohio, should be the advocate of David P. Lewis. He one prosecuted an innocent woman to death, the latter took pay from the same government to convict his accused fellow citizens of a crime of which they had not been proved guilty. When he reached the scaffold, which he had chosen to end his life, he was compelled to descend, it was attempted to excuse the lawyers, who had at all masters bidding, brought innocent men to the block, the younger Hamden from his seat in Parliament excluded. We have a new sort of monsters in the world, hanging a man to death. These I call bloodhounds. Bingham and Ku Klux Lewis are thus peculiarly fitted to the task of mutual support and subjugation.

We have alluded to Judge Bingham's part in the case of Mrs. Surratt. Let us review Judge Lewis' conduct in the same. The suggested parties were there fore immediately referred to the State authorities. Judge Bustard's office took them from the custody of the Sheriff, and the Judge himself committed them for trial in his court. Judge Lewis was employed to conduct the prosecution. One principal duty of a prosecuting officer is to see that justice is done, not alone to the government, but to the prisoners at the bar. The prosecuting attorney, says Mr. Christian in his notes to Blackstone, is the advocate of public justice, or to speak more professionally, the advocate of the King who in all criminal prosecutions is the representative of the state. And both the King and country may be better satisfied with the acquittal of the condemned than with the conviction of the innocent. The law has instructed the Chief Justice of her Common Pleas "that Justices should not be permitted to sit in judgment otherwise for her highness than for her subjects." And the reason of this is obvious. The government wishes no victim to punished in order to vindicate its dignity and prevent the repetition of crime. Hence if the accused be proven innocent of crime, it is not only the duty of the government, but its high privilege to vindicate his character as one of her sons, and to protect him from injury and injustice. And the duty does not devolve on the officer who represents the government—the prosecuting attorney.

Three prisoners were put on trial. All three of them, Buzeman, and two others, were so well defended by Judge Lewis in a card referring to the defense of Buzeman, says: "After the testimony of others, Bozeman was brought out by the defense, the prosecution did not attempt to desire to convict Bozeman and Col. Minnis and myself informed Judge Lewis before the argument."

This being the case, Bozeman was at once entitled to his discharge. This was his undoubted right. And yet when he claimed it, Judge Lewis obstructed.

How men do not act in matters of importance without a motive, let us see what induced Judge Lewis to make this objection. Before closing for the defense, Dr. White stated that Bozeman's testimony was inconsistent with the other prisoners, as it would clear up the suspicious circumstances that had been brought against them. He therefore appealed to the court to grant his discharge, so that he might become competent as a witness in their behalf. To this Judge Lewis objected, and thus deprived Smith and Pylant of the benefit of Bozeman's testimony—and yet at this very time he admits that Bozeman's innocence had been established. And yet he knew that the lives of these two men hung on his refusal. In the charge to her Majesty's Chief Justice, to which allusion has already been made, Queen Elizabeth orders "that whatever could be brought in favor of the subject (priests) should be permitted to be heard." This was the idea of James I, a monarch of a great Commonwealth, considers this right, this privilege as wholly inconsistent with Radical notions of humanity.

Done at office this the 26th day of Oct., A. D. 1872.

SATURDAY, NOV. 9, 1872.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Nov. 8, 1872.
L. W. GRANT, ESQ.—Radicals have the State by about four thousand majority. Legislature very close. We have two majority in the Senate. Radicals four, probably, in the House. Sixth North Alabama District only gives us about five hundred majority.

Yours Respectfully,
ROBT. TYLER.

Jacksonville gave a Democratic majority of about 75 notwithstanding the fact that the Radical fifth of the county was packed into her precincts.

We took a flying trip to Oxford yesterday. The city looked as busy as a bee hive, notwithstanding the untoward appearance of the political horizon. Our friend Draper was the most substantially interesting man we met. We mean "sweet William." He has been to Atlanta. He knows how these things go.

The Elections.

To make a short story of a long one, we have been defeated; most shamefully and disgracefully defeated in both the State and Presidential elections.

That the result is largely due to Radical frauds there can be no doubt; but while this is the case there is no escaping the terribly humiliating conclusion that it has been accomplished through the apathy and indifference of the Avalanche Democracy of the mountains. In the Sixth District alone, says a dispatch to us, our majority has been reduced from six thousand to five hundred. We do much better in the Fifth District, which we attribute to the gallant fight the popular and enthusiastic Caldwell made. Had Caldwell been of the stuff that Sloss is made of, we might now stand as disgraced as does the Sixth District.

Had North Alabama done only as well as the Fifth District has done, we might have carried the election; but she did not do it. Had the Fifth and Sixth Districts have imitated Calhoun county, we would have won a glorious victory. This is the one oasis in the desert of our woe,—the one balcony breeze in this "winter of our discontent." Calhoun acquitted herself well. Would that we could say more.

Many of the weak minded and cowardly of our party already are casting about for new associations, and new party affiliations. They go on the supposition that the old Democratic party has gone by the board. To such we say, do not be in hurry about party. The probability is that the Democratic party will fight the fight.

"Till Birnam forest come to Dunsinane,

If it should not, there is ample time to determine. We say watch the sheets that want to jump the fence first; they have been looking for a gap a long time, and are black sheep at that. We say to the Democratic army "thick into rank!" Let us at least march off with our side-arms and the honors of war. We had no rout at Appomattox.

We attract attention to the article on "Iron" on the outside.

It is proposed to have a meeting here next Wednesday night for the purpose of taking steps to have a Blast Furnace above or below this place. Eligible sites lie all along the line of the road from four to eight miles both above and below us. It is uncertain whether the Furnace will be above or below. Let us have a big meeting Wednesday night. IRON is our only hope now.

The Election.

The contest in Alabama is exceedingly close. It is impossible to decide with absolute correctness whether the Democratic and Liberal, or Spencer's Radical party have succeeded in electing their tickets. The chances are with the Democrats and Liberals. There will undoubtedly be a Democratic and Liberal majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. North Alabama has by its apathy or by some extraordinary influences we cannot rationally comprehend, and against all representations made to us, put our State in terrible peril of renewed carpet-bag and negro rule under circumstances pregnant with evil. We consider none, but grieve from the bottom of our heart at the remissness or fatal delusions of our people. North Alabama does not give in both of her Districts as large a majority as either one of them should have given and can give with the proper spirit and exertion. Besides this defeat, the radicals from all the signs have cast about three thousand fraudulent black votes, and this, we are satisfied, can be proved on investigation. When we next address our readers we hope to speak definitely of results. As it is we only indulge in a reasonable expectation that we have beaten on the radicals and their aiders and abettors in the State by a small majority.

Montgomery Advertiser.

A Vermonter who sent for one of the $2.50 hand sewing machines advertised in the papers, received a shoemaker's awl worth about ten cents.

How was Jonah punished? Whaled.

It is estimated that the mere distribution of Radical campaign documents has cost the people of the United States $178,000.

Neutral Journalism.

The Jacksonville Republican has been established thirty-six years and has preserved a strict neutrality in regard to candidates for election—has had no choice of which it belongs. Then are we astonished to see the Republican, after having entrenched itself in this neutrality, permitting itself to be used in the publication of Standifer's "Ball Play" "Advertisement," even though it be handsomely paid for its insertion; especially at the time when Col. Cooper has not an opportunity of naming it as a falsehood. It seems strange that any newspaper should allow itself to be used to place a noble man, above suspicion, in a false light before his constituents on the eve of the election. You long has that state-man and christian walked in the paths of integrity, a scintilla of suspicion to rest upon him, and he would seek as easily to strip his fair fame just as he is about to be raised to the Senate—upon his own words his constituents' dagger must lead.

"Till Birnam forest come to Dunsinane,

If it should not, there is ample time to determine. We say watch the sheets that want to jump the fence first; they have been looking for a gap a long time, and are black sheep at that. We say to the Democratic army "thick into rank!" Let us at least march off with our side-arms and the honors of war. We had no rout at Appomattox.

We attract attention to the article on "Iron" on the outside.

It is proposed to have a meeting here next Wednesday night for the purpose of taking steps to have a Blast Furnace above or below this place. Eligible sites lie all along the line of the road from four to eight miles both above and below us. It is uncertain whether the Furnace will be above or below. Let us have a big meeting Wednesday night. IRON is our only hope now.

The contest in Alabama is exceedingly close. It is impossible to decide with absolute correctness whether the Democratic and Liberal, or Spencer's Radical party have succeeded in electing their tickets. The chances are with the Democrats and Liberals. There will undoubtedly be a Democratic and Liberal majority on joint ballot in the Legislature. North Alabama has by its apathy or by some extraordinary influences we cannot rationally comprehend, and against all representations made to us, put our State in terrible peril of renewed carpet-bag and negro rule under circumstances pregnant with evil. We consider none, but grieve from the bottom of our heart at the remissness or fatal delusions of our people. North Alabama does not give in both of her Districts as large a majority as either one of them should have given and can give with the proper spirit and exertion. Besides this defeat, the radicals from all the signs have cast about three thousand fraudulent black votes, and this, we are satisfied, can be proved on investigation. When we next address our readers we hope to speak definitely of results. As it is we only indulge in a reasonable expectation that we have beaten on the radicals and their aiders and abettors in the State by a small majority.

The news from this county comes in very slowly. Our gains in the county have not been large as at first reported owing to unexpected losses at Tuckers Store and Dublin. The following are the on additional returns that have been received:

Dublin—Rad. 135; Dem. 217.
Tucker's Store—Rad. 211; Dem. 94.
Lees—Rad. 211; Dem. 178.

The real vote cast at Mt. Meigs, of which it is thought to be 100, has decreased to a largely decreased majority. There are nearly neutral returns, but except Mt. Meigs they are nearly official. The official count at Gilmer & Brown's box, in the Exchange precinct, gives Grant 519; Greeley, 499; Lees, 414; Bulger 44; R. E. Jordan, 32. The vote of this city was: Radical 4,151; Democrat, 1,765. Oates received about 60 more votes than the rest of his ticket.

The vote of this city was: Radical 5,519 Radical, and 2,403 Democratic. Mr. Porter's box, Union Academy, At Oakfield all are east for us.

TALLADEGA COUNTY.

Padleville, Ala., Nov. 6, 1872.

Everything at this Box is quiet yesterday, 6000 to 7000 polled. Lees 165. The remainder of the ticket about the same vote, except for Senator, the stands thus: J. A. Torrell, 733; M. J. Bulger 44; R. E. Jordan, 32. The Republicans all voted here. They will be 200 for them outside of this box. Camp Hill gives over 80 majority. At Oakfield all are east for us.

Everything at this Box is quiet yesterday, 6000 to 7000 polled. Lees 165. The remainder of the ticket about the same vote, except for Senator, the stands thus: J. A. Torrell, 733; M. J. Bulger 44; R. —GREENE COUNTY.

Eaton, Ala., Nov. 6.

Precinct at Eatow Herndon is two hundred and twenty-four; Lewis one thousand four hundred and fifty-two. Official vote, Grant ticket is elected by thirteen hundred majority in Greene county.

—DALLAS COUNTY.

Selma, Ala., Nov. 6.

Dallas county has reduced the Radical majority of 1870 from three hundred and five hundred votes.

—LAUDERDALE COUNTY.

Florence, Ala., Nov. 6.

In this county the Democratic majority about four hundred. Returns not in.

—MOBILE COUNTY.

Mobile, Nov. 6.

Official vote not yet announced. This is probably reliable from tallies and box count: City gives Greeley and the State ticket 65 majority. County gives 50. The Radicals polled a large vote in consequence of M. G. Kennedy having all his and other negroes of the rail road at this precinct, who were entirely under control of Kennedy.

—WINSTON COUNTY.

Willites, Ala., Nov. 6.

The election at this precinct passed off quietly. Total vote cast, 108. For Governor, Lewis 58; Herndon 56.

—BARBOUR COUNTY.

Eufaula, Nov. 6.

The Radical majority at Eufaula and Clayton is 1,300. In all the county will probably be 600 to 700. Rumor from Henry county gives 1,500 Democratic majority. All quiet.

—DEMONSOPOLIS.

Demopolis, Ala., Nov. 5.

The Democrats gain all over the country on the Seymour and Blair election. Jones, Deut, is probably elected to the Senate.

—SALEM, ALA., Nov. 5.

The whole vote so far as ascertained is 236, all Democratic.

—FORT LOWDER, LOWDER Co., Nov. 5.

Grant 144; Greeley 128; Herndon 134; Lewis 14.

—GREENVILLE, ALA., Nov. 5.

Demopolis precinct, Herndon 227; Lewis 1,580. Linden precinct, Democratic majority 175. Faunsdale precinct, Democratic majority 175. Chances favor Democratic ticket and the county is controlled by the Radicals.

—MARENGO COUNTY.

Demopolis, Nov. 6.

All precincts heard from except for small ones. Greeley 632; Grant 3,379. Radical gain 547. This will not be disregarded. Herndon and Lewis run with their respective tickets nearly.

—HALE COUNTY.

Greensboro, Nov. 6.

All precincts heard from except for small ones. Greeley 632; Grant 3,379. Radical gain 547. This will not be disregarded. Herndon and Lewis run with their respective tickets nearly.

EX AUDITOR WICKLIFFE OF LOUISIANA COMES TO LIGHT.

The Ex-Auditor in the Role of Medicine
Man—A Steal of $90,000. The Monk
Turns a Thief—He Makes His Escape, but Discovers About $10,000—
A Started Community!

(Selma [Ala.] Times.)

In the month of August, 1870, there came to this city a man of rather pleasing personal appearance, apparently an educated gentleman and a man of means.

HIS STAY IN THE CITY.

was limited to a few days, and leaving

town, he went to our neighboring village of Summerfield, and, in a little while settled himself in a very retired, secluded neighborhood, some five miles north of Summerfield. He appeared to have

PLenty of Money,

but was not by any means lavish in his expenditure, and in place of going into society, he, on the contrary, expressed

a desire for retirement, and was averse to forming extended acquaintances with the people among whom he lived. He purchased a little piece of land in a distance

from any public road, and is a locality

which had rarely visited by strangers, and an acquaintance to the public that he was a physician, and gave his name as

DOCTOR J. POLK SHELLY,

and by that name he was known here,

and at Summerfield.

Dr. Shelly's practice, however, was very limited, notwithstanding the fact that he kept his horse, which was by the way a very fine one, constantly saddle-and ready for use. The Doctor's practice would have doubtless been larger, but for his bad luck in bleeding a poor

enfeebled prostrated man, suffering from chills, and the man's dying in a few hours afterward. This occurred just on the threshold of his medicinal career,

and caused his skill to be questioned to a degree that deterred many from calling his services into requisition. But practicing medicine was not all the amusement

with the Doctor than the amüsement

of huffy laires, and it did not null

his temper, or interrupt his course of life

that his patients were few. What college

Doctor Shelly was a graduate of, origin

from whence he came, were of those things unknown to the people among whom he abided.

As before stated the Doctor appeared to have plenty of money, and these appearances were in consonance with the truth, and thereby hangs a tale that we propose to narrate. Having plenty of money the Doctor bought and sold divers

and sundry things and made numerous speculations, at the same time continuing the practice of his profession.

This wore on, as the novelists write it,

without the occurrence of an incident to interrupt or change the current of Dr. J.

Polk Shelly's life, and he began to be regarded as a permanent citizen of the locality in which he had been tarrying since August, A. D. 1870. It is true that the Doctor had many little eccentric ways that his neighbors and acquaintances did not understand, but his general conduct was unexpected to them. And thus things continued until a few weeks,

when a change came, and Dr. J.

Polk Shelly was shown to be an impostor

and a fugitive from justice, with Neoan's hair.

For three weeks since, a Mr.

Bummel, of New Orleans, who in Selma

on business, and on the ensuing incitive with Doctor J. Polk Shelly, recognized him as an old acquaintance from

New Orleans, and misdeeds discovered in the abrood Doctor J. Polk Shelly.

Ex-Auditor George M. Wick-

life, of Louisiana, and so called him.

His interview with Mr. Bummel was of short duration, and leaving him very abruptly, the ex-Auditor, alias Doctor

J. Polk Shelly, mounted his horse, near Summerfield. Now, let us see why

Mr. Wicklife so abruptly left town, and why he assumed the name of Doctor J.

Polk Shelly. In 1868, 1869 and 1870,

he was Auditor of the State of Louisiana, and for corruption and rascality in office, was impeached and expelled from the position. He was raised to official position by the Radical party. While in office, he made the most corrupt use of the power through fraudulent means,

of which there are upon thousands of dollars.

In the Spring of 1870, he went to Mr.

Jacob Strauss, a broker of New Orleans,

and Louisiana Treasury warrants, approximately right, aggregating one hundred and forty thousand dollars, upon which Mr. Strauss advanced him $17,000

in Greenbacks, and also a certified bank

check for $10,000. Shortly after getting this money, Mr. Wicklife struck the dust of New Orleans from his feet, and left for parts unknown. In a short while afterwards, the warrants were prepared for payment, and Mr. Strauss made the rather uncomfortable (for him)

discovery that his warrants were bogus,

and that he had been swindled by this.

In spite of numerous efforts to discover the whereabouts of Wicklife,

they remained a mystery to Mr. Strauss and the people who wanted him, until an accidental meeting with Mr. Bum-mel, alluded to above. This accounts for his abrupt departure on that occasion.

Mr. Bummel went to Vicksburg and telegraphed Mr. Strauss, that he knew

Wicklife's whereabouts, whereupon Mr.

Strauss set the machinery in motion to overhaul and bring him up with a round turn. We should have stated that in the meantime a true bill had been found against Wicklife in New Orleans, against Wicklife, for obtaining money from Mr. Strauss under false pretences, and that Mr. Wicklife was aware of it. His desire for seclusion and avoidance of society, and his hundred little eccentricities are now all explained and accounted for.

Mr. Howard, one of Mr. Strauss' Attorneys, was sent to this city to make the effort to recover some of the stolen money from Wicklife, and on his arrival here, secured the counsel and assistance of that distinguished and eminent legal firm, Messrs. Morgan, Lapsley & Nelson. Mr. Lapsley took the matter in hand and ascertaining beyond question the identity of Doctor J. Polk Shelly and Geo. M. Wicklife, made his dispositions for interviewing the notorious individual. On last Monday, accompanied by a friend as a blind, and armed with an authenticated copy of a judgment for $71,000 against Wicklife and in favor of Mr. Strauss, Lapsley went to Wicklife's house, located as before stated, about five miles from Summerfield.

The Doctor was on the qui vive, but assumed quite a nonchalance air. Mr.
Lapsley's object being to secure as much of the stolen money as was possible, he had to skirmish and advance on Wicklife's approaches in a cautious manner.
He did most effectually and induced

Mr. Wicklife to acknowledge the debt and disgorge about ten thousand dollars.
Mr. Wicklife, on the first intimation that he had swindled Mr. Strauss, declared of course the soft impeachment, but finally made a clean breast of the transaction, to Mr. Lapsley, and said that he had no intention of swindling
Mr. Strauss, and was only taking care of his money for him. He said the debt was just, and after giving Mr. Lapsley cotton receipts for ninety-six bales of cotton, stored in warehouses in this city,

promised to come to town next morning and arrange the balance. To this the Tax Collector has promised to give it.

Yours truly,
Joshua Draper, Jr.,
County Treasurer.

The National Calamity.

It becomes our painful duty this morning to announce to the people of the United States, yesterday decided by an overwhelming majority to saddle themselves for four years longer with Ulysses
S. Grant, and his Administration. It is nearly necessary for us to say that we had hoped for a different result, and are deeply disappointed. The hostility of the North against the South has been unmitted again, and the fruit will be borne,
we presume, in due season. The blame for this defeat rests in a great measure upon the members of the Democratic party, who either abstained from voting, or cast their ballots for the men whom they have heretofore professed to regard as their enemies. The ticket which they have been accustomed to vote in years gone by these men have repudiated.
It remains not in what form these recreants choose to excuse themselves:
their actions speak, and despite their pretensions, they are no Democrats.

The people of this country have demonstrated their fitness for self-government, and that's about the best that can be said of it.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Two Irishmen on a sultry night, took refuge under the bed clothes from a party of mosquitoes.

At last one of them gasping from heat,
ventured to peep beyond the bulkwarks, and espied a firefly, which had strayed into the room. A rousing his companion with a punch, he said: "Patrick, Patrick, it's no use; we might as well come out. Here's a lantern the craters are searching for us with."

THE BANNER BEAT.

After fair and impartial comparison between the votes of 1870

and 1872, the Committee have decided that Boat No. 8 is the Banner Boat of Calhoun, though many competed close for the honor and are entitled to great credit. The Banner is made and awaits the order of a committee from Boat 8.

It is subject to the order of the Boat any time after Tuesday, the staff only remaining to be made.

Six negro paupers who were unable to walk, were hauled from the county hospital to vote for Grant and Lewis.

They came from an institution where they were supported by the white people of Montgomery county to vote against the interests of the people who were keeping them from starving. That shows their gratitude.—Montgomery

with Ku Klux outrages, to vote them for Grant and Radical ticket in the county, but were rejected.—Advertiser.

(Communicated.)

Mr. Editor: It was my good pleasure to attend the Tournament, at the Old Camp Ground. I would have written something of it sooner but was expecting some more important news to perform the task, and besides a day time

has been very much occupied with other matters. It was a magnificent affair, although no more important subject and were counted for by sixteen gallant and

bold riding knights than followed: follow:

Knight of the Lost Virtue, W. A. Gentry,

Knight of the Rock Cross, Virgil Fugley,

Knight of Mindful, A. J. Street,

Knight of Alvoray, W. T. Glaser,

Knight of Leetham, J. L. Davis,

Knight of Troy Topaz, W. L. Bain,

Knight of the Fleetwood, D. W. Walker,

Knight of Gladys Cross, G. C. Williams,

Knight of the Rose, C. M. Martin,

Knight of Silver Crescent, S. W. Bowles,

Knight of Cheusekew, Walter Hodder,

Knight of Blue Crescent, Green But-

Knight of Hope, W. M. Andrews,

Knight of the Quixote, Sam'l Wright,

Knight of Mars, A. M. Martin.

The Knights were mounted, and by Capt. J. M. Bauford, Knight of the Day, and a beautiful sight was to see sixteen

well mounted, well equipped, beautifully

costume'd, most handsome Sir Knights drawn up in line, eager for the contest,

striving with each other to win the prize for which they were about to compete: to wit: 1st, A Royal and Sanguine

Crown, 2d, A Beaufiful Wreath, 3d,

A Handsome Album.

The contest began about 10 o'clock,

and the large and enthusiastic crowd on the grounds were held spellbound for

2 hours, during which time some plebi-

ous but indeed honest knight, indeed

the best riding in the world, you may

guess that it was real fun! You ought to have seen that male! Why he would kick at his own shadow!

When the contest ended, the result was announced by the Marshal as follows: 1st, Wm. won by Knight of the

Trojan, 2d, By Knight of the Silver

Crescent, 3d, By the Knight of Hope.

The young men certainly deserve great credit for their proficiency in such an elegant accomplishment! The riding was interposed with a good deal of side splitting laughter. When you know that Capt. Tom. Martin was the chosen, well esteemed for the occasion, and the best kick kicking made in the world, you may

guess that it was real fun! You ought to have seen that male!

To form a conception, you should have been there then you could. I've soon told the good matronly ladies, assisted by their sweet young ladies, made all

smile—more than tongue can tell now!

After dinner, the presentation of the prizes took place. The Knights were rewarded in fine and the prizes were provided to the successful Knights by the Marshal. The champion Knight of the Blue Crescent, taking the Knight of the Silver Crescent, taking the Knight of the LA GRANGE, Ga., March 25, 1872.

BRADFIELD & CO., Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sirs: I take pleasure in stating that I have used for the last twenty years, the medicine you are now putting up, known as Dr. J. Bradfield's FEMALE REGULATOR, and consider it the best combination ever gotten together in the female system that it is recommended. I have been satisfied with the prescription both as a preparation of medicine and in domestic practice, and can honestly say that I consider it a boon to suffering females, and can but hope that every lady in our white land, who may be suffering in mind or body, will seek out this medicine to quench her trouble, that her sufferings may not easily be relieved, but that they may be restored to health and strength with my kindest regards,

I am respectfully, W. B. PERINELL, M.D.

NEW YORK, March 21, 1872.

MRS. W. M. ROOF & SON, New-York.

Sirs: Some months ago I bought a bottle of BRADFIELD'S FEMALE REGULATOR from you, and have used it in my family with the utmost satisfaction, and have recommended it to many of my relatives, and they have found it just what it is intended.

The females who have used this REGULATOR are in perfect health and are able to attend to their household duties, and we cordially recommend it to the public.

Yours respectfully, W. B. JOHNSON.

We could add a thousand other certificates, but we consider the above ample proof of its virtue. All we ask is a trial.

For full particulars, history of diseases, and certificates of its wonderful effects, the reader is referred to the wrapper round the bottle.

W. T. & C. S. ALEXANDER keep the best Cigars and tobacco in town.

If the ladies want to see something particularly nice and very desirable, they should call Monday at Rowan, Dean & Co.'s establishment.

Dr. Bill, it is said, did not get all excited.

If you want nice fresh Buck Wheat go to W. T. & C. S. Alexander.

In Jackson county, on the 5th, Mrs. Shaver, wife of Nathaniel Shaver, killed James Estill, near Anderson Depot, on the Nashville and Chattanooga Road. Shaver and Estill were engaged in a fight, when Mrs. S. took the part of her husband, stabbing Estill with a bowie knife.

We have received Vicki Floral Guide for the year 1872. The Guide is the most beautiful periodical of the kind published, and yet it is published quarterly. Others not half so costly are published only once a year. Price 25 cents.

We insert the advertisement elsewhere.

Liverpool Salt just received by W. T. & C. S. ALEXANDER.

Messrs. Green & Leibster, of Alexandria, are deservedly popular and successful. They ask trade through circulars sent out from this office and they will receive it. The firm that makes the freest use of printers' ink is the firm that will most abundantly succeed. We have lived a long time for a young man and know whereof we speak.

W. T. & C. S. ALEXANDER have just received a nice lot of German Butter.

We invite particular attention to the patriotic as well as practical card of Gen. John H. Forney.

We have heretofore frequently alluded to this subject, and published facts and figures from the most trustworthy sources that should convince every man that the profits in iron are most enormous, and that it will most emphatically pay for our people to take hold of it. Gen. Forney's association with it is sufficient guarantee that the project is one most proper for us to engage in. Mr. Jones is a gentleman well recommended by men whom we know to be correct and prudent men. Gentlemen who know the value of money as well as the profits in iron are ready to take hold. We only instance one, to-wit: that a veteran iron man and upright citizen of Rome, James Noble, Sr.

We have reason to believe that at least half of the stock is already taken. Will our own people take the other half and double their money every year, or will they wait for Northern capitalist to come in and do it?

Just Received by W. T. & C. S. Alexander, 200lbs. fresh cod fish.

P. J. Garret has opened up a very neat Confectionary Establishment in the brick store house owned by Judge Thos. A. Walker.

Hon. J. M. Renfro is the handsomest man in the Alabama Legislature, and we don't except the Court House Legislature either.

The Board of Education will likely memorialize the Legislature to pass a law compelling every voter to show the receipt of the Tax Collector for his poll tax before he can vote. This is proper.

The Bladon Springs Herald says that Joshua Morse, former Radical Attorney General of Alabama and assassin of Newell E. Thomas, the Editor of a Chocktaw Co. paper, is dead.

Rev. John A. Thompson, Pastor of the M. E. Church of this place, will preach in this place to-morrow (Sunday) at 11 o'clock.

Only absence from home has prevented an earlier mention of the recent great improvement in the excellent weekly newspaper, the Selma Argus. Besides being much improved in print and appearance generally, it has been much enlarged. It is most ably and impartially edited, and deserves for the attention given every department of it, a place in the house of every Alabamian.

The Horse Disease has reached Selma and Montgomery, South, and Cave Springs, North of us. Whether it will reach this place remains to be seen. At any rate owners of horses had better begin to post themselves on the remedies until both parents are dead.

A SURPRISED HUNTER.—A hunter on the Rio Grande, who was invariably unsuccessful, became so much annoyed by the taunts of his companions, that he determined to adopt the Comanche Indian fashion of hunting, and accordingly dressed himself in a deer skin, and ornamented his head with huge antlers. Thus equipped he sallied out, and took his place at a favorite "stand." A few moments only elapsed before a couger, perching in the limb of the tree above, thinking that he saw "sure enough buck," leaped from his airy abode plump on the hunter's back, at the same time baring his claws and teeth deeply into the dried skin.

A young man who went West from Danbury a few months ago, has sent only one letter home. It came Friday. It said: "Send me a wig." And his fond parents don't know whether he is scalped or married.

The saddest instance of misplaced confidence on record is that of a Connecticut man, who rescued another from a watery grave only to find that, instead of his long-lost brother, it was a person to whom he owed three dollars and a half for runups.

CHEAP LIVING.—The cheapness of living in France is due not alone to the price of articles, but to the simple and unostentatious manners of the people. A writer in Frazer's Magazine says that however small or reduced the income of a genteel family in France, their social position is not in the least affected by their circumstances; and that the general diffusion of wealth shown by the French loan is owing to the economical living and the thrifing of the women, who generally participate in the business of earning a livelihood. And then, when the children marry, they continue to live under the paternal roof, as before, in one family, thus reducing the expenses, and holding the families in a sort of communion until both parents are dead.

You were informed yesterday by telegram that the revolutionists had sent a committee to wait upon Gov. To this committee the Governor replied, that no word made no communication in present, as he thought it best to wait for the arrival of the next session of the Legislature.
